

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1912
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1912

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1912.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Mary had a little name,
She changed it day by day;
She made it "Mayme" for a time,
And then it turned to "May."
She used "Maisy" for awhile,
And then tried "Ma," but lo!
She met a nice young man, and now
Her name has changed to "Ma."

Double Stamps Saturday at Bee Hive.

Walter Fitzwater, who killed two men in Cincinnati the latter part of July, was cleared at his examining trial, self defense being thoroughly established. Fitzwater formerly lived in Nicholas county. He was attacked on the street in Cincinnati by two men who accused young Fitzwater of being a strike breaker.

Democrats Fail to Override Veto
WASHINGTON, August 15th.—House Democratic leaders failed today in their third successive effort to override the President, when they sought to pass the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill over Mr. Taft's veto. The vote, 153 to 107, was twenty short of the required two-thirds of those voting.

Some Altitude
The Pike's Peak Daily News of Saturday, August 10th, contains the following: "Among the distinguished ladies and gentlemen registering on top of eight-seeing old Pike's Peak, via the picturesque and scenic Cog Wheel route were Hon. Frank P. O'Donnell, State Deputy Knights of Columbus for Kentucky, Mrs. F. P. O'Donnell and son, John Francis."
The Daily News is published at an altitude of 14,147 feet, being the most "elevated" publication on earth.
Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell and son returned last evening after a four weeks' eight-seeing trip, which included many of the noted and interesting points in the county.

PARIS HERE
Starts the Ball Rolling This Afternoon For Three Days' Sport

This afternoon the Paris Club is here for a game with Maysville and will also be here Saturday and Sunday. The season is now fast drawing to a close and all lovers of the great American sport should attend every game to be played here, which are not so many.
Paris has a hefty bunch and Maysville, as fast as she is, will not have a sure thing in winning.

BOLD FORGER
Draws Bogus Checks on Hon. R. B. Lovel, the Maysville Grocer

A "tourist" who is shaping his steps toward the Penitentiary has been working the bogus check scheme in neighboring cities, having for his prey Hon. R. B. Lovel, the Maysville grocer. Several of the Maysville banks, so we understand, have received checks from corresponding banks for small amounts, each bearing the signature of R. B. Lovel.
Of course the papers are bungling forgeries for which Mr. Lovel is in no way responsible and he will lose nothing by this traveling felon's attempt to make easy money.
Be on the look out for these bogus checks and give the nearest officer information which may lead to the running down of this jail bird.

Another Winder For Sardis Bank
FRANKFORT, Ky., August 14th.—State Banking Commissioner T. J. Smith today appointed Representative Stanley F. Reed of Maysville Special Deputy Commissioner to wind up the affairs of the bank of Sardis in Mason county, which closed its door two weeks ago.

May Get Pension Money Soon
WASHINGTON, August 15th.—Pensions for thousands of veterans held up by disagreement of the House and Senate over the $160,000,000 pension appropriation bill may be paid Saturday.
Checks for all the back pensions are ready for mailing at the various agencies. As soon as President Taft signs the bill all agencies will be notified by telegraph to release the checks.

ELECTION BETTING DULL
Wager of $1,000 Even Reported That T. R. Will Carry 15 States

In New York election betting was rather dull. There are still several offers at 3 to 1 against Roosevelt, and some Wilson money at 1 to 2 is being talked of, but so far as real betting is concerned Wall street has seen little of it.

A few small bets were made in customers' rooms Thursday, but they were mostly on Taft against Roosevelt, without regard to the possible election of Governor Wilson.

The prevailing odds range from even money to 7 to 5, with Roosevelt the favorite.

A bet of $1,000 even was said to have been made that the Colonel would carry 15 States. This, however, could not be confirmed.
